SECTION 28, COPYRIGHT LAW. IN FORCE JULY 1, 1909.

That any person who willfully and for profit shall infringe any copyright secured by this Act, or who shall knowingly and willfully aid or abet such infringement, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment for not exceeding one year, or by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or both, in the discretion of the court.

Different Lines of Business

require different methods of publicity. What would prove profitable in one may be wasted advertising in another.

DIRECTORY ADVERTISING indexes your display where it cannot be missed by those in search of the reason why they should trade with you.

A CAREFULLY prepared advertisement classified under its correct department in the City Directory is a salesman that says no more or less than you want it to say. It reaches the man with whom you want to do business. And if your goods have merit, well, there won't be a long wait before the other fellow and you get together.

THE COST IS LOW. An opportunity to talk it over will not obligate you to sign a contract and we go anywhere for business.

THE CITY DIRECTORY

Is on the job Sundays, week days, holidays, 365 days in the year

It is consulted daily by the buying public. Each year as the new issue is received at the office the previous one is carried home, where the purchasing power there depends upon it to guide her in buying.

It is used, referred to and consulted, loaned to Smith

Just to Convince Yourself

Look through the ad pages of the

CITY DIRECTORY

and see the rank of its patrons — reflecting a class of advertisers with keen business ability and sound judgment

There is no other publication that can fill the niche the City Directory holds

And every book is worn out at the end of a year — been on the job 365 days

Let our representative give you the particulars

The City Directory has no real rival

It is alone — in a class by itself. It is part of a business man's office equipment — just as much a necessity as his ledgers

Buyers scan its advertising pages with more than casual interest. They want something and know where to look to find it. If your ad is not there — it's a lost opportunity and you are certainly the loser

Our man will give prices and suggestions about the advertising if you will but ask him to call

"A Three Ring Circus"

A long-time advertiser in the City Directory told this incident the other day:

"The solicitor of another guide called on me a few days ago and tried to get my advertisement by talking down the City Directory. Wanted me to cancel it with the City Directory and place it in his publication. 'Why!' he said, 'nobody ever sees your Ad among all those pages of advertising in the Springfield City Directory. That book is a regular three ring circus. Put it in my book where there are not so many, and it will be seen.' I asked him, 'When the circus comes to town, which one do you patronize as giving you the most for your money,—the little one ring show, or the big three ring circus? I guess the men I want to reach take in the big show when they refer to the City Directory, for we obtain more traceable results from the three ring Springfield City Directory than all the others put together. We won't change. Good morning.'"

YOU'VE noticed, no doubt, that cold argument stripped of human interest, does not always thaw out the average man's indifference and soak into his confidence.

There needs to be a sort of man-to-man magnetism running through your sales letter arguments, and since we've specialized on properly written and executed facsimile typewritten letters as business getters, it stands to reason that we could give you a new blend of sales talk that would stir up still more interest in your proposition.

No harm to draw closer whether we finally get together or not. It's your move.

The Wrong Merchant

To deal with is the man who really doesn't want your business. Business is sensitive. It goes only where invited and stays only where well treated. You get much more attention and courtesy from the merchant who really does want your business.

Our advertisers all want your business. They pay us good money to keep their names before you. If they couldn't make it worth YOUR while to deal with them, it wouldn't be worth THEIR while to advertise.

Also, if it wasn't worth their while to advertise, the CITY DIRECTORY would cost ten or twelve dollars a year instead of $4.00. And it seems to us that's another good reason why you should deal with

HOW YOU MAY GET PROSPECTS

THERE are a number of methods that can be employed in securing a list of good Prospects. One way is to have an actual canvass made of the territory or trade you wish to reach. Another way is to advertise in the magazines and invite inquiries. Attached to both these methods is a huge cost, and they can only be used by concerns with a universal market.

There is, however, another and less expensive way of getting a mailing list. At our office we maintain a large and up-to-date file of directories. These directories have every line of business classified and indexed. From this bureau of information, together with our wide experience in directory work, we are in a position to compile lists that meet the particular requirements of any business, trade or profession.

We have a bulletin giving full particulars which we will be glad to send you upon request.

The Telegraphone

THE Telegraphone was invented to receive correspondence dictation. It saves the time of your stenographer because none is consumed in taking dictation. Her entire time is spent producing—typewriting what you have previously dictated to The Telegraphone. Dictating to The Telegraphone is exactly like talking over the telephone.

A peculiar advantage of The Telegraphone over ordinary dictating machines is that it may be attached to any telephone and will record every word passing between those speaking, distance making no difference. It is so sensitive to sound that it identifies the voices of the persons engaged in conversation. The records it generates are indestructible.

It is particularly valuable to train dispatchers as once an order is telephoned with The Telegraphone attached, it may be repeated a thousand times, but never altered.

The American Telegraphone Co.

Office: 468 Main St. Factory: 65 Harrison Ave.

Different Lines of Business

require different methods of publicity. What would prove profitable in one may be wasted advertising in another.

DIRECTORY ADVERTISING indexes your display where it cannot be missed by those in search of the reason why they should trade with you.

A CAREFULLY prepared advertisement classified under its correct department in the City Directory is a salesman that says no more or less than you want it to say. It reaches the man with whom you want to do business. And if your goods have merit, well, there won't be a long wait before the other fellow and you get together.

THE COST IS LOW. An opportunity to talk it over will not obligate you to sign a contract and we go anywhere for business.

—"Speaking of Business"

DO YOU want yours to grow—branch out? Are you keen on pushing into new territory—reaching new customers?

If you do, and have the necessary stick-to-it-iveness, we can help you.

It is a fact that men bent on increasing their business by advertising it, first turn their attention to facsimile typewritten letters and a live mailing list.

We prepare mailing lists of wide-awake prospects which meet the requirements of your own business. Our knowledge of business conditions, the wealth, resources, production and consumption, enables us to give intelligent information concerning the market for your particular product.

It is unnecessary for us to go into detail to explain why typewritten letters bring in the business when other mediums fall short. They do it, and that's all you care about.

A strong statement, you say? The only way to disprove it is to test our ability with a trial order and note the results.

If you're interested in going further—write or let our representative call on you. You will incur no obligation by doing either.

APPEAL TO THE PUBLIC!

Let the CITY DIRECTORY
Give you PUBLICITY

If you fail to Advertise in the City Directory the public loses sight of you.

Ask yourself these questions:

Can I afford to be out of the Public Eye?

On whom do I depend?

How can I create a bond of sympathy with the Public?

ADVERTISE YOUR GOODS
THAT GIVES YOU AN INDESTRUCTIBLE ASSET

Remember, your advertisement in the City Directory is before the Public 365 Days in the Year

THE PRICE & LEE CO., Publishers,
279 Dwight Street, Springfield, Mass.

At the office--where time saved means dollars earned--the City Directory is a money maker.

THE CITY DIRECTORY should be within your arm's reach. When it is, your mind is relieved of mere detail and ready for deep thinking. And then when you need to know where Bill Smith lives, his address is at your elbow.

Turning to "Bill Smith," you find his correct name---last name, first name and middle initial; his occupation or business; whether he boards or rooms or keeps house, and where. What more could you ask to know about a man?

And by the way, don't you think a book so constantly referred to as the City Directory a good place for a description of your business written up large? It's your turn to move.*

*Quarter page ad costs $8.00. Half page $11.00. Every order includes a copy of the Directory. A talk will not obligate you to sign a contract, and we go anywhere for business. When shall our man call?
